

Article - Criminal Law

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)

§12-211.

(a) (1) An indictment for violating the prohibition against the drawing of lotteries or the selling of lottery devices is sufficient if it states that the defendant drew a lottery or sold a lottery device.

(2) The indictment need not state the particular kind of lottery scheme involved in the alleged violation.

(b) The defendant, on timely request, is entitled to a bill of particulars.

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)